

STORIES FROM THE SEA

EXPLORATION OBJECTS

MODEL OF HM BARK ENDEAVOUR

Date made

1973-76

Object ref.

SLR0353

Credit

National Maritime Museum, Greenwich, London

Artist / maker

Robert Lightley

Description

A very detailed model of HM bark Endeavour, fitted out for Lieutenant (later Captain) James Cook's first voyage of exploration from 1768 to 1771. This model is complete with stores, equipment and all the crew. It shows how very crowded the conditions were on board ship.

Questions

Make a list of the food you would take with you on a sea voyage that lasted three years.

What do you think might be in the barrels and sacks?

Supported using public funding by

ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

