

Check list for inclusivity, heritage and creativity.

Our community is strengthened when we share and connect

Multiple viewpoints are presented to represent all groups and acknowledge our complex identities such as race, disability, sexuality, gender, class and age to challenge stereotypes, misconceptions and preconceptions.

Amplify young people's voices and include in strategic decision making so they are heard:

- to feel empowered
- to make a change
- to feel valued
- for self-expression
- to champion the school or college

Use creativity and heritage as a vehicle to teach complex and historical themes to explore the world so the learning is meaningful and relevant to the 21st century.

Ensure your teaching is inclusive of ethnically diverse and global communities.

Endorse British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of each other regardless of beliefs and faith.

Promote frequent cultural visits for non-art subjects to support a rich, broad and balanced curriculum.

Engage with heritage and artworks as a stimulus to unlock voices and develop a life-long love of learning.

Elicit insightful class discussion to develop a deeper understanding and confidence to articulate ownership of ideas.

Develop meaningful partnerships with the cultural sector:

- to broaden appreciation
- to strive for innovation and provide authentic opportunities
- to take ownership of your students learning and ensure it is relevant and exciting
- to highlight creative and culture pathways and progression routes
- to identify and signpost networks to support coursework demands
- to provide memorable learning experiences

Opportunities support a sense of wellbeing, belonging and personal development.

Best practice sharing, high quality CPD and case studies disseminated beyond for a wider reach to inspire others.

Shared language across the school at all levels and for all stakeholders.

Show and exhibit outcomes in professional spaces to elevate classroom work.

Adopt creative strategies and promote creativity for:

listening, teamwork, problem solving, critical thinking, adaptability, sense of achievement, confidence, curiosity, questioning, initiative, cooperation, courageousness, resilience, imagination, memory, concentration, risk taking, rigour, passion, empathy, communication.