

ESOL Entry level 3 - Post visit activities

1. In pairs, ask and answer these questions with your partner:

- Have you ever been to a museum?
- Where was it?
- What did you see there?
- What did you enjoy most about your trip?

2. Text A : Read the text then answer the questions below

The National Maritime Museum (NMM) is in Greenwich, London. It has 15 galleries, over five floors: exploring the influence of the sea on history and culture.

The National Maritime Museum first opened in 1937, although the building was originally used as a school for children of seafarers during the 1800s, and has since been declared as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The NMM also contains the world's largest maritime library and archive collection. It has the most important holdings in the world on the history of Britain at sea with more than two million items.

Today the NMM attracts more than 750,000 visitors each year. Discover epic stories of exploration and that have shaped our world today.
