

Royal Museums Greenwich

Priceless partnerships

Who we are

We are Cutty Sark, the Queen's House, the National Maritime Museum, and the Royal Observatory Greenwich. We are home to some of the world's most famous locations, set in the heart of a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

We are a collection of diverse sites with unique identities, overlapping interests and a common purpose to connect the past to the present and shape the future.

What we do

We are a national museum and education charity. Our work sits where history, art, and science meet, inspiring millions of people each year.

Our unique collections, sites, experts, exhibitions and events empower everyone to discover worlds, cross boundaries, bridge cultures and create connections.

Our impact

We are inclusive and welcome people of all ages, backgrounds, and interests

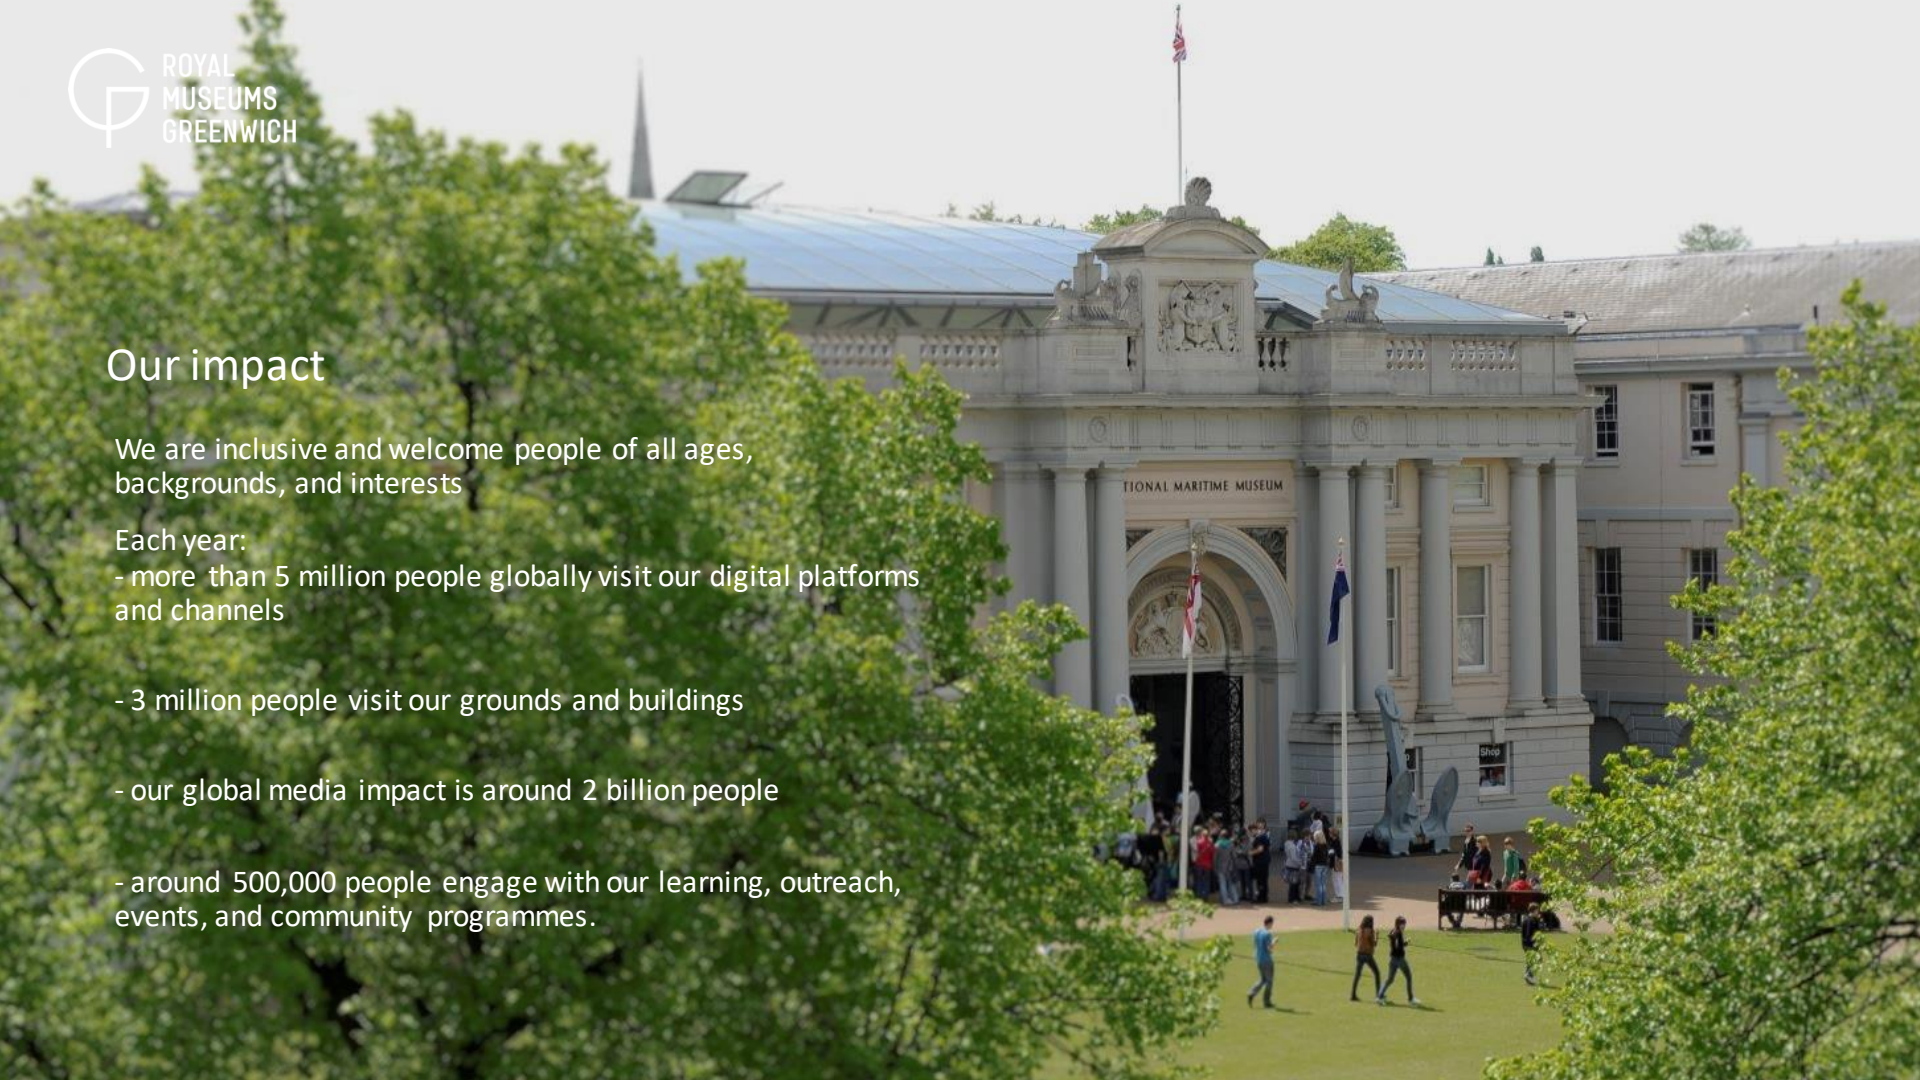

Each year:

- more than 5 million people globally visit our digital platforms and channels

- 3 million people visit our grounds and buildings

- our global media impact is around 2 billion people

- around 500,000 people engage with our learning, outreach, events, and community programmes.
